

Key vocabulary – Classroom Instructions

¡Siéntate! Sit down! 	¡Levántate! Stand up! 	¡Arregla las sillas! Put your chairs under! 	¡Cállate! Be quiet! 	¡Escucha! Listen!
¡Mira! Look! 	¡Mírame! Look at me! 	¡Ven a la alfombra! Come to the carpet! 	¡Repite! Repeat! 	¡Recoge la mesa! Tidy up the desk!

Key Vocabulary – Actions

apláude clap 	coge take 	pon put down 	salta jump 	corre run
levanta la mano put your hand up 	baja la mano put your hand down 	patalea stamp your feet 	cruza los brazos cross your arms 	anda walk

Key vocabulary – My Body

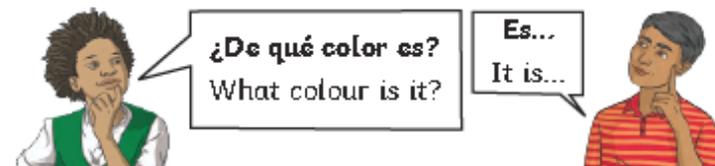

Key Vocabulary - Clothes

f = feminine

m = masculine

una falda (f) 	unos pantalones (m) 	un jersey (m)
una camiseta (f) 	una camisa (f) 	unos pantalones cortos (m)
un vestido (m) 	una sudadera (f) 	unos zapatos (m)
unos calcetines (m) 	una bufanda (f) 	un abrigo (m)
unas gafas (f) 	un impermeable (m) 	unas botas (f)
un gorro (m) 	un cinturón (m) 	unos guantes (m)

azul	blanco	rojo	negro	amarillo	rosa

verde	gris	naranja	violeta	marrón

Key Knowledge and Grammar

Aquí está/ Aquí están Here is/Here are	In Spanish, we use 'Aquí está' [Here is] to present singular items and 'Aquí están' [Here are] to present plural ones. e.g. Aquí está mi cabeza. [Here is my head.] e.g. Aquí están mis piernas. [Here are my legs.]
Femenino/Masculino Feminine/Masculine	Nouns in Spanish are either masculine or feminine. The concept of 'masculine' and 'feminine' is usually unpredictable, so simply remember that all nouns are either una/unas [feminine] or un/unos [masculine] words. e.g. una falda [a skirt], un abrigo [a coat]
Verbos Verbs	Spanish verbs change according to every subject: llevo [I wear/I'm wearing], llevas [you wear/you're wearing], etc. In English, we change the present tense verb for the third person 'he/she/it' by adding 's' while all other subjects take the bare infinitive of the verb, e.g. I wear/they wear/she wears.

